

EOS Survey

What's the value of data?

EOS Survey

What's the value of data?

1

Trust ranking by country

Little trust when it comes to disclosing data to companies

Regions and sectors compared. (Data in percent)

“ I am skeptical when it comes to sharing my data with companies.

“ I trust companies to handle my digital data responsibly.

Top 3 sectors compared:
Who do customers trust to handle their data?

■ Europe
■ USA
■ Russia
■ Switzerland

2

Consumers' views on sensitivity of data

Finances are taboo

Which data do consumers regard as the most sensitive?

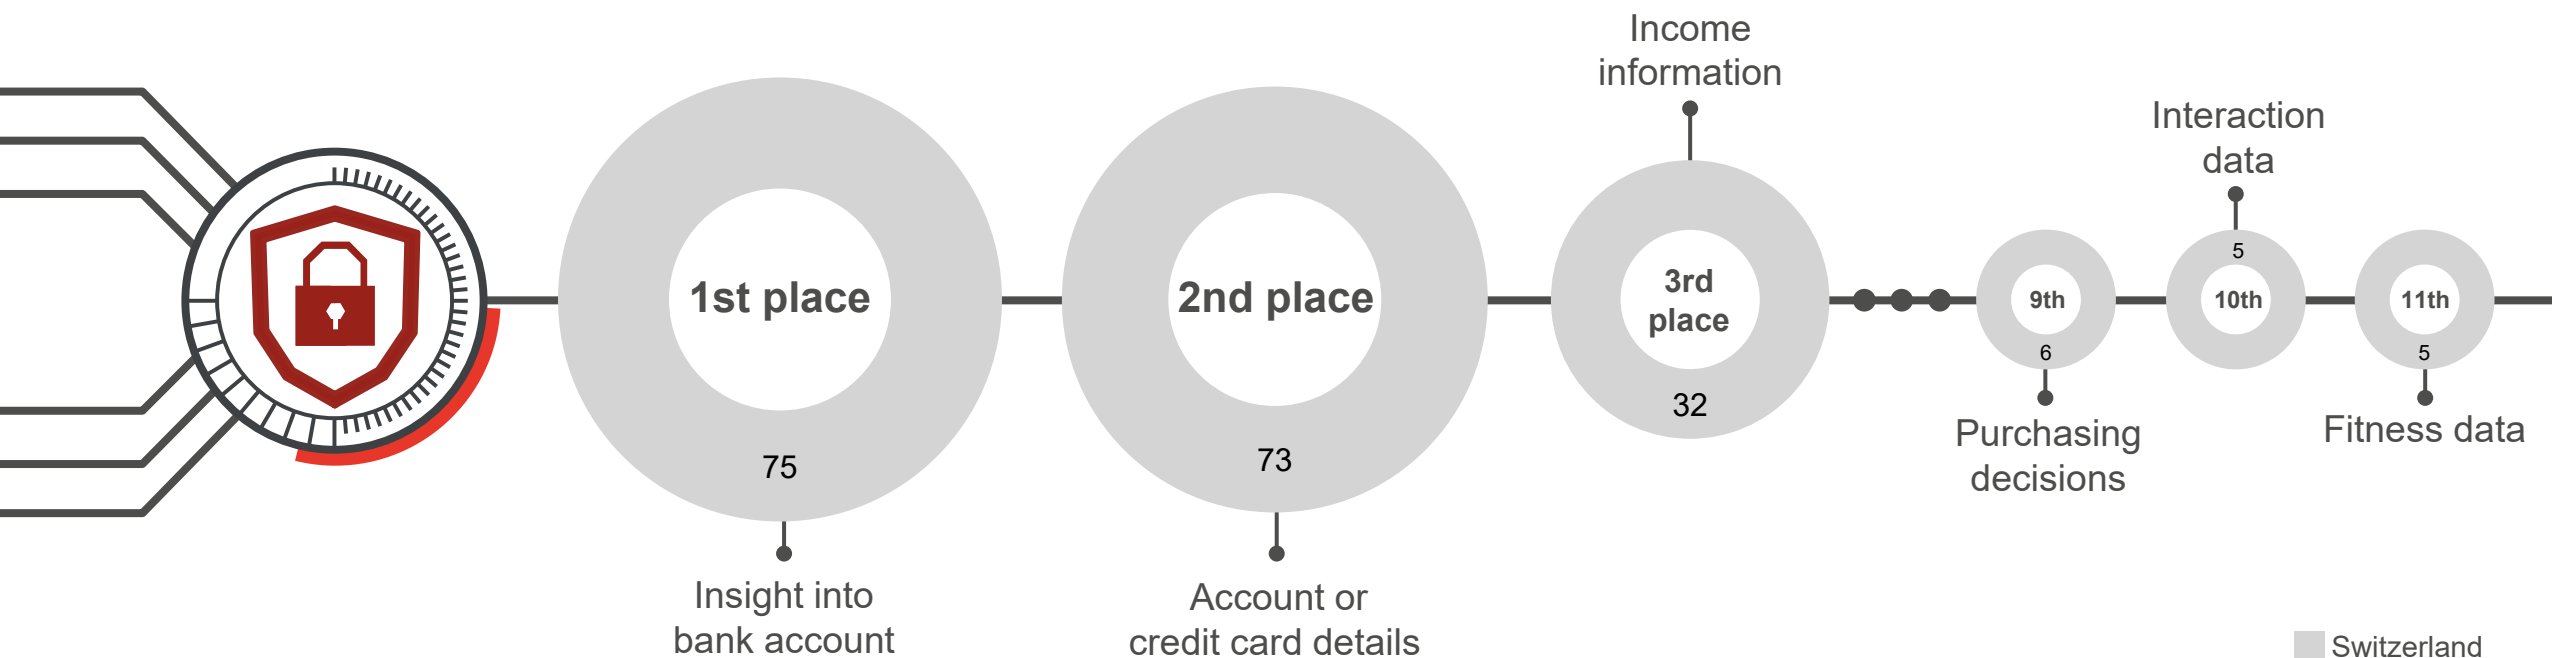

Europe, USA and Russia compared. (Data in percent)

Finances are taboo

Which data are most sensitive for Swiss consumers?

(Data in percent)

3

Data for compensation

Data for cash and discounts

Europe and USA: One in three would offer their own data. (Data in percent)

“ I am prepared to share my data with companies if I receive compensation for it.

“ I am willing to sell at least one item of personal information to a trustworthy company.*

- Europe
- USA
- Russia
- Switzerland

*If the individual trusts the company to adhere to data privacy regulations.

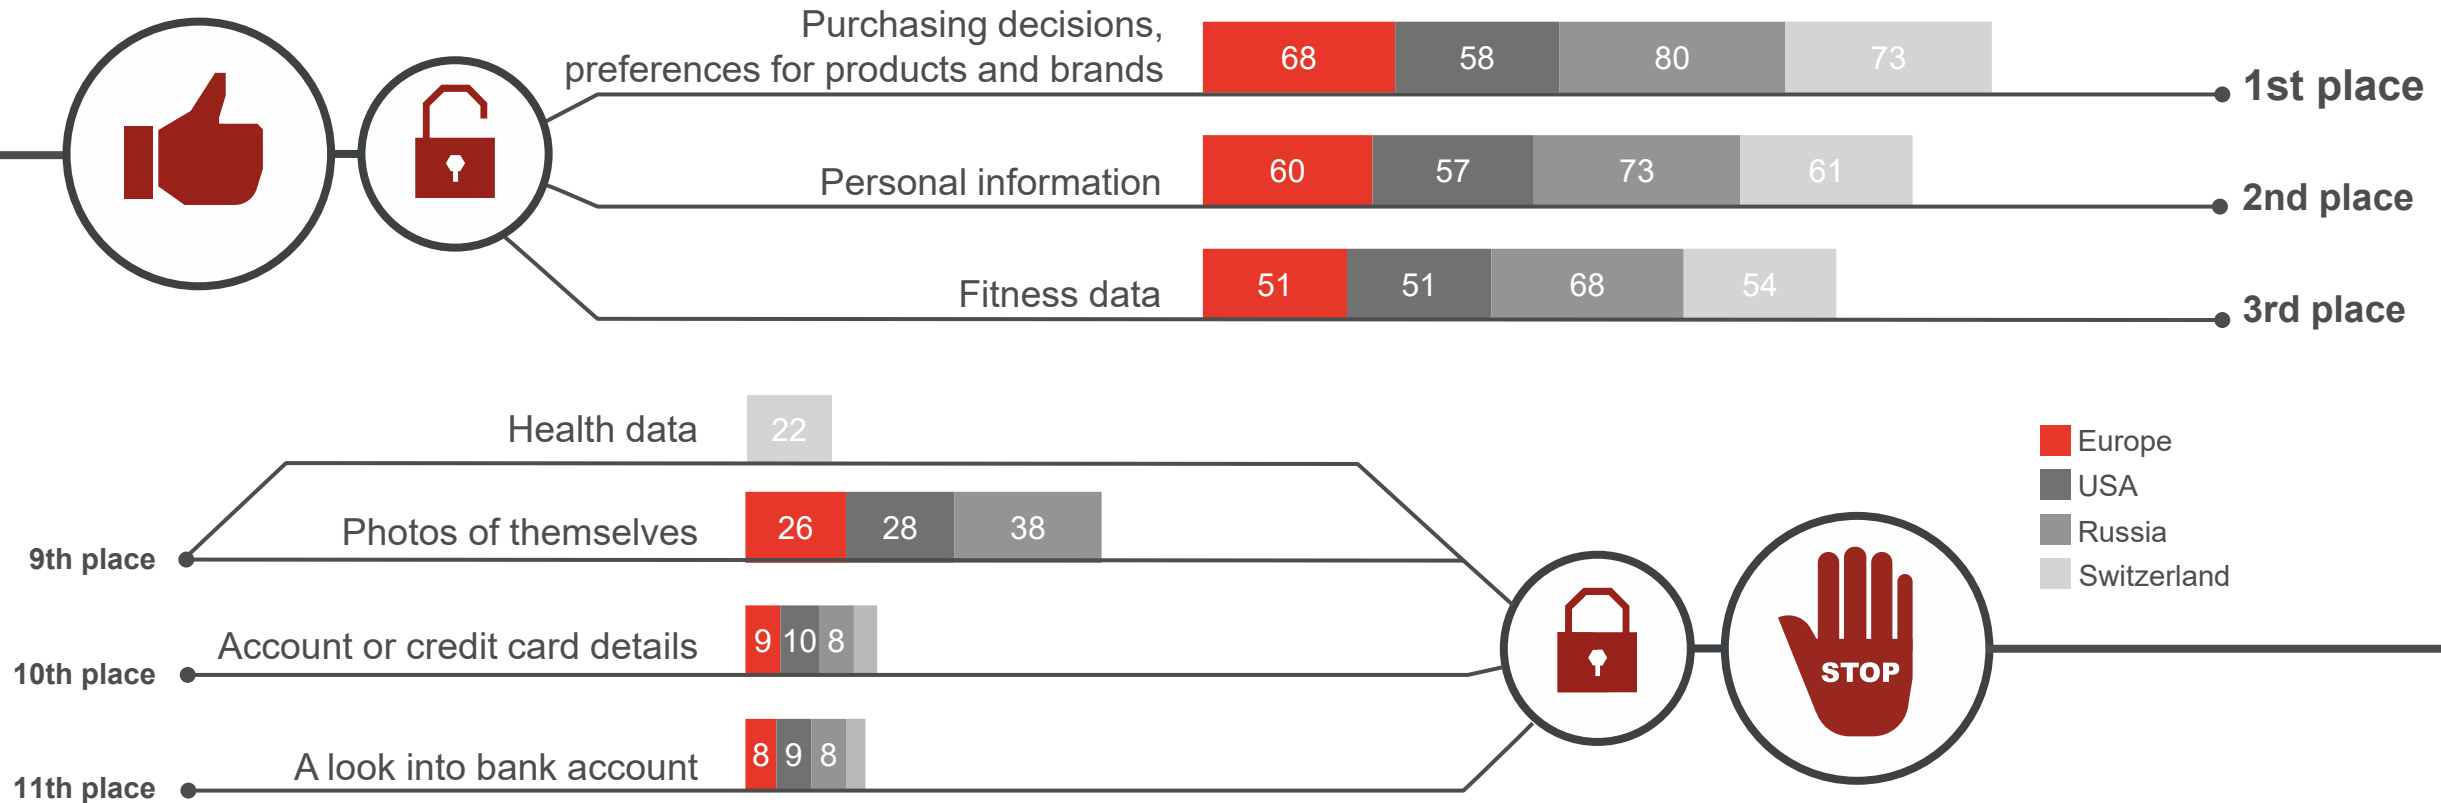

4

Which data are consumers willing to sell?

Willing to disclose personal information, but not bank account details

Consumers would disclose this data for compensation.*

(Data in percent)

*If the individual trusts the company to adhere to data privacy regulations.

5

Swiss and digital trust

Considerable skepticism about the handling of data

Swiss have little digital trust in companies. (Data in percent)

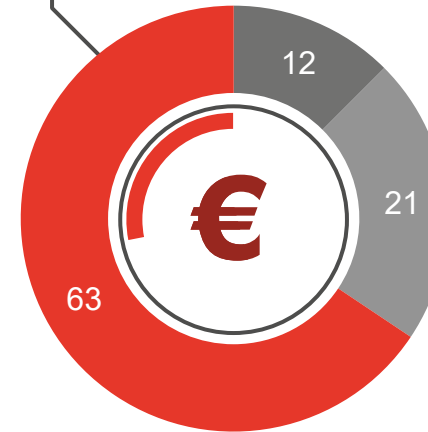

Yes
Undecided
No

I am very skeptical when it comes to sharing my data with companies.

Do companies handle my data in a trustworthy manner?

Should companies pay their customers for their data?

Are you willing to share your data if you are compensated for it?

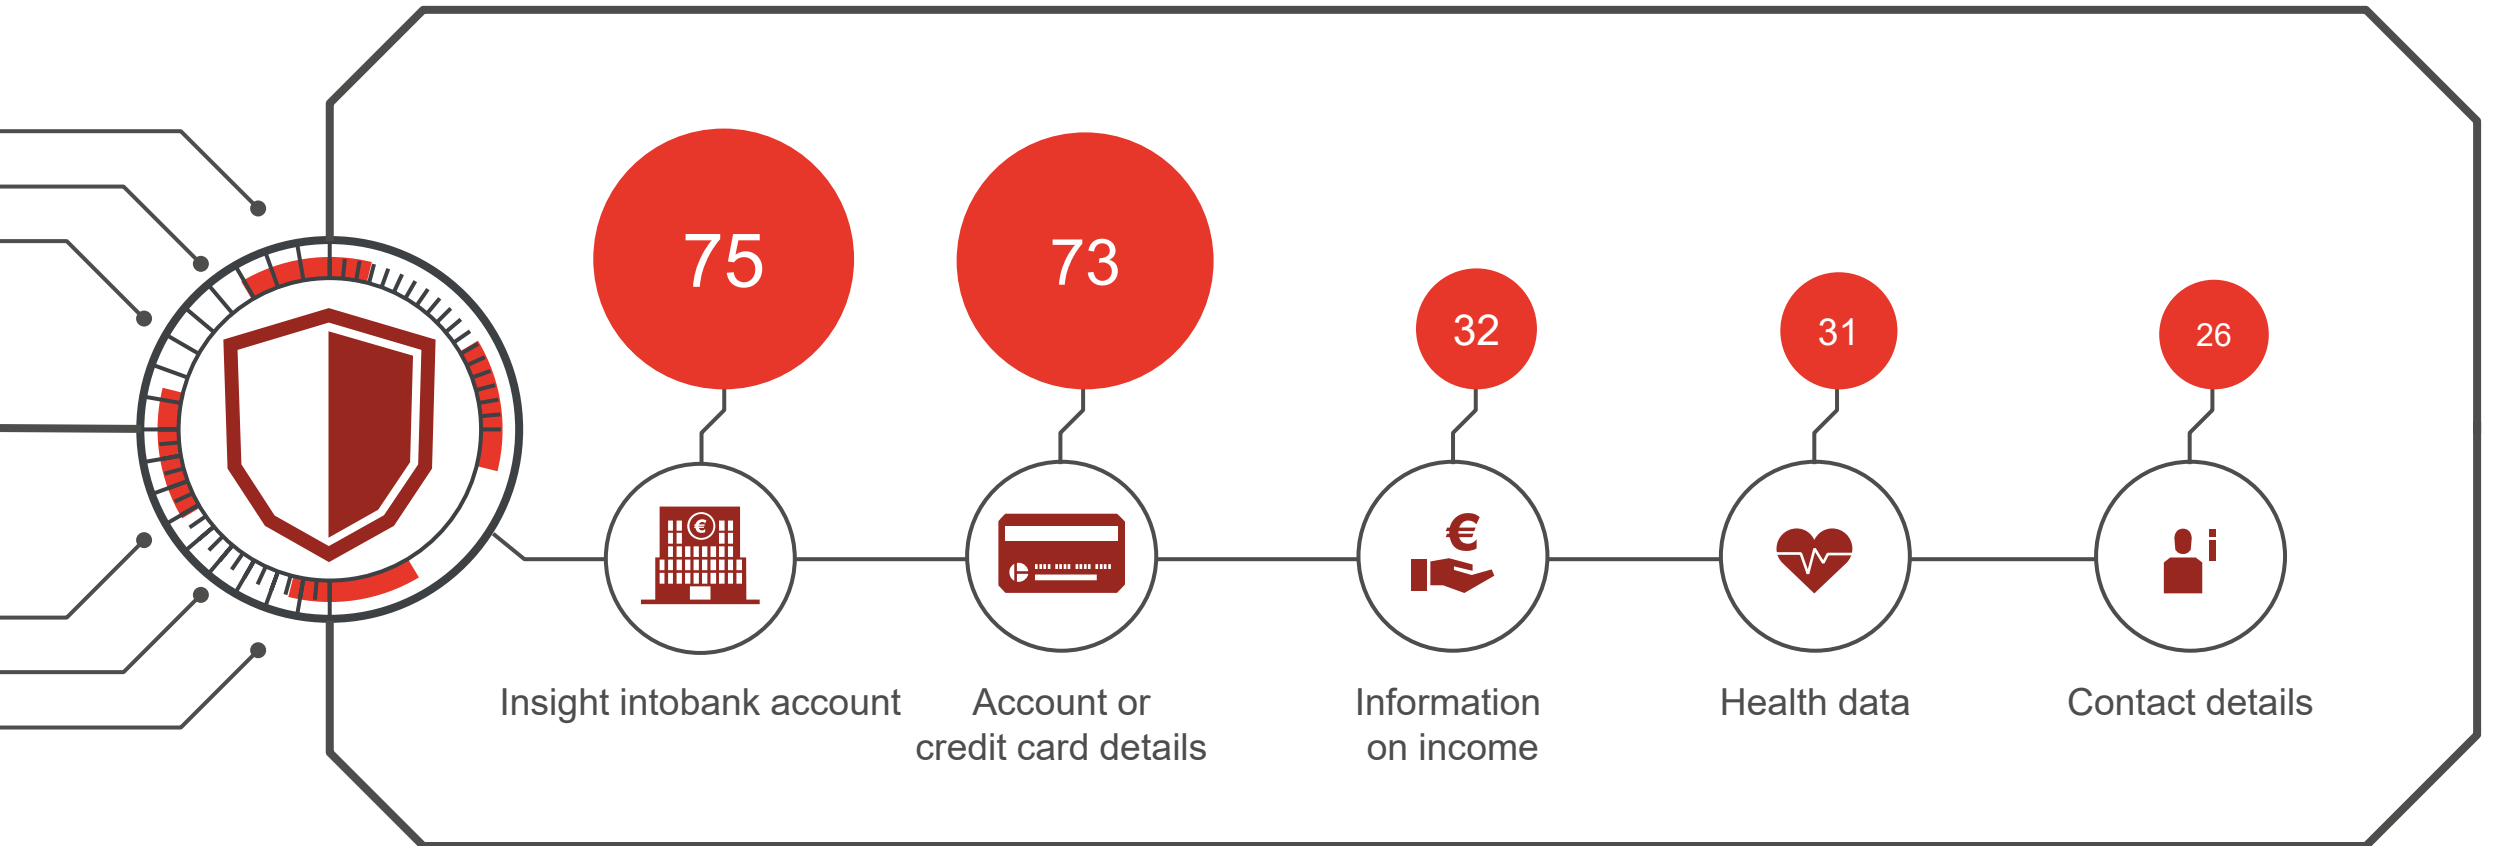

6

Swiss and data sensitivity

No information about bank account

For Swiss this is the most sensitive data. (Data in percent)

7

Preferred compensation

Discounts are appealing, services are less attractive

What Swiss consumers want for their data. (Data in percent)

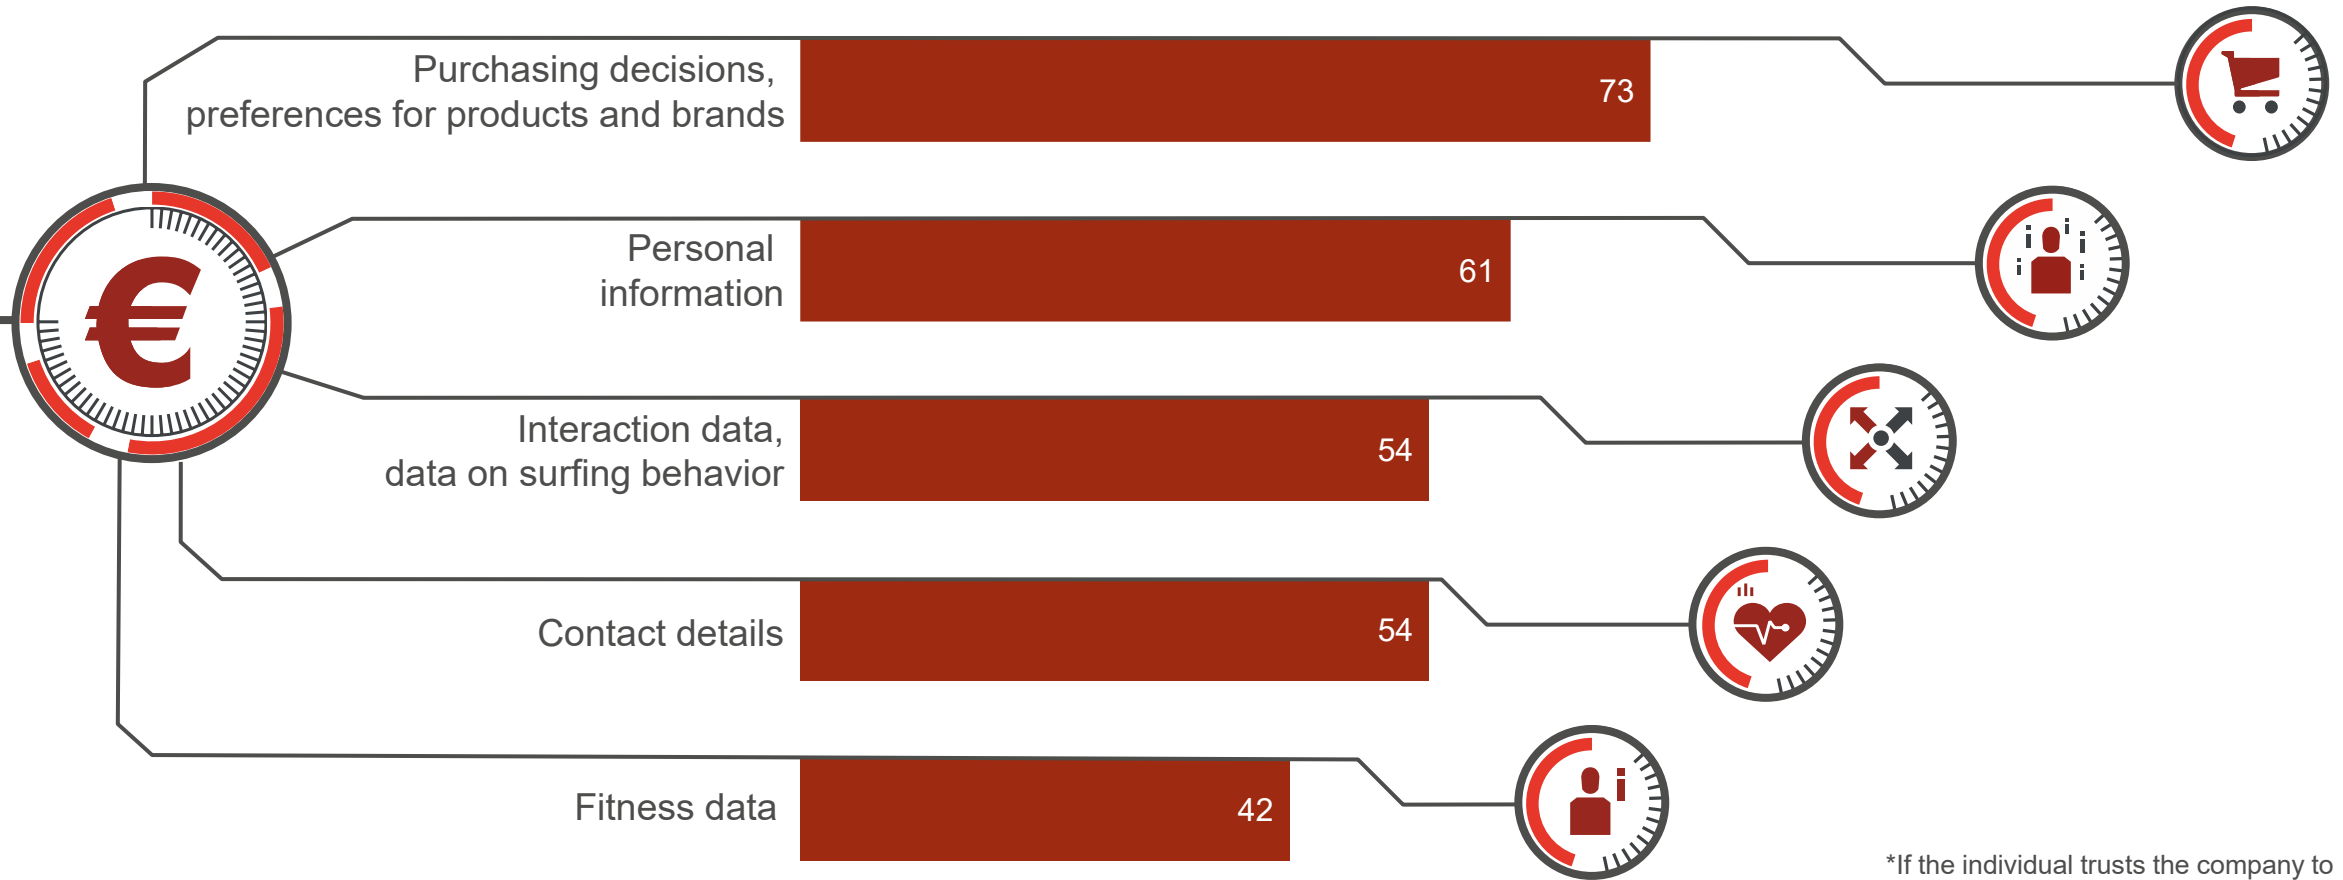

8

Swiss consumers would sell this data

Swiss potentially agreeable

Data that would flow freely for money.* (Data in percent)

*If the individual trusts the company to adhere to data privacy regulations.

